

Compassionate Communication Center of Ohio

Upcoming Events

For more information:
www.speakingpeace.org
614-558-1141

Don't Be Nice, Be Real

1 ½ day conference: June 20-21, 2014
Unity Church, 4211 Maize Rd., Columbus, OH

Discover the benefits of expressing yourself honestly and authentically, even when the stakes are high (and your fears are the greatest).

While many people shy away from difficult conversations, you will learn how to prepare yourself for them, initiate them even when you're anxious, and stick with them long enough to experience a shift or transformation.

Led by Jeff Brown (pictured), Executive Director of the Compassionate Communication Center of Ohio, who will be assisted by several experienced practitioners of Compassionate Communication.

International Intensive Training (IIT)

9-day residential retreat: August 15-24, 2014
Procter Camp & Conference Center, London, OH

Join us to be part of a compassionate community learning to speak from the heart, practice deep, non-judgmental listening, and build self-empowerment from the inside-out.

This experiential retreat was popularized by Dr. Marshall Rosenberg, founder of NVC, and has been offered nearly 100 times in 15 countries.

Robert
Krzisnik
Slovenia

Myra
Walden
Chicago, IL

Kathleen Macferran
Seattle, WA

Jeff
Brown
Columbus

Family Heart Camp

7-day retreat for children, parents and families
August 2-9, 2014
Greenwood Lake Camp (Delaware, OH)

Family HEART Camp is a unique community experience for all people who long for more Harmony, Ease, Authenticity, Respect, and Trust in their families, in their communities, and in the world.

Grounded in the principles of NVC, the camp will offer the experience of a lifetime - living in a compassionate community.

Led by Susanna Warren (pictured), Certified Trainer with the Center for Nonviolent Communication and graduate of the Parent-Peer Leadership Program.

Mediate Your Life

8-week practice group (Thursdays 6:30pm-8:30pm)
Begins April 24, 2014.
Hosted at the Compassionate Communication Center

Join us to practice the skills that John and Ike are teaching us in this training, and learn how to apply them to real situations in your life.

This will be a highly experiential group with lots of opportunities to practice being a mediator as well as role-play a person in conflict.

After strengthening our skills, we might even practice with real situations that arise in the group!

Led by Jeff Brown, Executive Director of the Compassionate Communication Center of Ohio.

